de Lalande, its neighbour across the road, started life as the same Pauillac estate. Baron Joseph de Pichon Longueville split the property evenly amongst his five children. The two boys received what became Pichon Baron, while the daughters received what is now Pichon Longueville Comtesse de Lalande. The 2009 Pichon-Longueville Baron has a medium to deep garnet color and a very meaty/savory nose over a core of sweaty leather, baked blackberries and plums with notions of crème de cassis, sautéed herbs and black olives coming through with coaxing. ## 2009 CHÂTEAU BRANAIRE-DUCRU 4ÈME CRU CLASSE, SAINT-JULIEN, BORDEAUX

Classified as a fourth growth in 1855, Ch. Banaire-Ducru makes pure and classic St Julien. The estate has recently passed from father to son: the widely respected Patrick Maroteaux – who had served at various times as president of the Union des Grands Crus de Bordeaux and the St Julien appellation – sadly passed away in 2017. His son François-Xavier has picked up the baton and continues his father's legacy. A gorgeous nose of violets and raspberries announces the 2009 Banaire-Ducru. It is fresh and focused yet powerful and concentrated at the same time with fine, ripe, silky tannins making the wine extremely approachable even at this early stage. The sublime quality of the fruit, as ever, is key here, and has resulted in an intense yet wonderfully elegant wine.

2003 CHÂTEAU PICHON LONGUEVILLE COMTESSE DE LALANDE 2ÈME CRU CLASSE, PAUILLAC, BORDEAUX

The estate was founded in 1689 by Pierre de Mazure de Rauzan and the vineyard acquired its name a few years later when his daughter Thérèse received it as part of her dowry on her marriage to Jacques de Pichon Longueville, the first President of the Parliament of Bordeaux. Thus began the history of one of the most famous Bordeaux vineyards which, for one and half centuries, remained a single holding in the hands of one family. Pichon brings together finesse and the tannins characteristic of great Médoc wines. On the nose there is raspberry, violet and cherry tempered with a note of cigar. The structure is balanced, solid and made to last. This is a highly precise wine, while highly concentrated, elegantly showcasing the characteristics of this vintage marked by drought. Sensual, exotic aromatics abound along with pure supple flavours.

2002 CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD, 1ER CRU CLASSE, PAUILLAC, BORDEAUX

A first growth in the 1855 Classification, Château Mouton Rothschild has a long and storied history; wine has been made here since Roman times. The estate has been in the Rothschild family since 1853, but it wasn't until the arrival of Baron Philippe de Rothschild in 1922 that its fortunes were transformed. Baron Philippe was a dynamic figure and revolutionised the estate. He was the first to introduce chateau-bottling, as early as 1924.

The nose displays complex fruit, rich in ripe berry fruit aromas like bilberry and blackcurrant, with some pleasant notes of smoke and leather. This full-bodied wine should evolve easily for 25-30 years.

2006 CHÂTEAU TALBOT GRAND CRU CLASSE, SAINT-JULIEN, BORDEAUX

Château Talbot is one of the best-known Bordeaux wine estates to a UK audience, not surprisingly because it takes its name from John Talbot, Earl of Shrewsbury, who in 1453 suffered the ignominy of losing the battle, and with it his life, which allowed Bordeaux and its vineyards to slip back into French control after belonging to the British Crown for over 340 years. The Château Talbot 2006 displays an intense garnet red colour. The nose gives off powerful aromas of cedar and toast. Full-bodied on the palate, the wine shows density, power and extremely length. ## 2010 CHÂTEAU SAINT PIERRE 4ÈME CRU CLASSE, SAINT-JULIEN, BORDEAUX

Henri already owned the Cru Bourgeois Ch. Gloria, but to own a Cru Classé was his lifetime ambition and he invested all his soul and a considerable amount of money into resurrecting this great property. Saint-Pierre has only 17 hectares of vineyards and the wine is typically a blend of 70% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc. Deep garnet in color, the 2010 Chateau St Pierre sings of baked black cherries, mulberries and Christmas cake with suggestions of dark chocolate, star anise and cardamom. Full-bodied and firmly textured with ripe, grainy tannins, it has tons of muscular black fruit with lovely freshness lifting the finish.

2003 GRAND VIN DE CHÂTEAU LEOVILLE LAS CASES 2ÈME CRU CLASSE, SAINT JULIEN, BORDEAUX

One of the oldest Medoc estates, Domaine de Léoville belonged to some of the wealthiest and most influential noble French families before it was acquired by the Las Cases family.

The estate was split up between 1826 and 1840 as a result of the French Revolution. (Expropriation of emigrants' property and constitution of egalitarian redistribution). Château Léoville Las Cases was created, thanks to a kind of birthright, from 3/5 of the original estate and the heart of the domain. The Grand Vin's current terroir has therefore been at the historic heart of the original terroir since the 17th century. Incredible nose of crushed berry, liquorice, violets and lightly toasted oak. Pure crème de cassis. Full-bodied, with big, velvety tannins and a long, long finish.

The dark ruby/purple-tinged 2004 Latour exhibits a strong cassis character intermixed with notes of crushed rocks, earth, cedar, and forest floor. ## 2012 CHÂTEAU LEOVILLE BARTON 2 ÈME CRU CLASSE, ST. JULIEN, BORDEAUX

Since Anthony Barton took over the reins from his Uncle Ronald in the mid 80s, quality has soared at Léoville Barton and the wine has gone from being a solid mid-league performing 2ème Cru Classé to one of the most exciting and scintillating wines in St. Julien. Dense ruby/purple, with cassis liquorice and forest floors notes in the aromatics, Léoville-Barton's 2012 is a relatively big, rich, masculine style of wine. This full-bodied wine should evolve easily for 25-30 years.

2007 CHÂTEAU MAGDELAINE, GRAND CRU CLASSE, SAINT-EMILION, BORDEAUX

Château Magdelaine, was a notable 1er grand cru classé, in St-Emilion owned by the famous firm of Ets Jean-Pierre Moueix. Magdelaine had 10.4 hectares of vineyards, of which six were on the famous St Emilion limestone ridge (very close to Ch. Ausone) and the remainder on clay- and limestone-based slopes. Merlot performs particularly well on these limestone-rich soils and at Magdelaine it is the dominant grape, making up 90 percent of the blend. A wine of red fruits and a lithe, elegant style, this combines redcurrant and raspberry with a little white pepper and lovely silky textures. No more than mid-weight the style is generally gentle and relaxed but never escaping a certain austerity and rigour running through as a backbone.

Château Croix de Labrie is highly rated in all the press. Rare and unique, the wines of Château Croix de Labrie are rich, dense, very fruity, with a perfect maturity of the grapes. ## 2006 CHÂTEAU VALANDRUD GRAND CRU CLASSE, SAINT EMILION, BORDEAUX

Château Valandraud started life in 1991, as one of the original "garage" wines, which sparked a trend for thoroughly modern Bordeaux wine styles made in such tiny quantities that they could be - and sometimes were - made in a garage. The man behind the wine, Jean-Luc Thunevin, was called the "Bad Boy" of Saint-Émilion by Robert Parker for defying centuries of tradition and making a highly stylised wine. A wine with real elegance and finesse and drinking wonderfully. The nose is lifted with bramble fruit and spicy oak. The palate is plush and full bodied, rich with blackcurrants, dark cherry and chocolate, with developing notes of dried currants, aged leather and tobacco.

This 3.7-hectare property is superbly situated on the plateau. The biggest parcel adjoins La Fleur and is 100m from Petrus. ## 2015 CHÂTEAU NENIN, POMEROL, BORDEAUX

A large property by Pomerol standards and one which has long been a favourite of the British Royal Family. Nenin was owned by the Despujol family until 1997 when it was bought by Jean-Hubert and Michel Delon, the proprietors of Château Léoville-Las-Cases. Michel Rolland has been retained as a consultant and the wines are now cleaner and displaying more depth of fruit than before. Classic Pomerol character of black olives, wet earth, violets and dark fruit. Full-bodied, tight and silky-textured with fabulous texture. Stones and dark berries. So serious and real. The depth is like looking down a well.

2006 CHÂTEAU PÉTRUS, POMEROL, BORDEAUX

Pétrus, one of the world's rarest and most expensive wines. Although the wines of Pomerol have never been classified, Pétrus is widely regarded as the outstanding wine of the appellation. The 11.4 hectare vineyard is located on a plateau on the highest part of Pomerol in the far east of the appellation. The topsoil and the subsoil at Pétrus is almost all clay (in neighbouring properties the soil is a mixture of gravel-sand or clay-sand) and Merlot flourishes in this soil. Pétrus' vineyard is planted with 95% Merlot. After the fabulous 2005, Petrus again has produced a magnificent wine in 2006, even if it doesn't hit quite the same heights. It has an immensely powerful structure and concentration, always the hallmark of this wine. But this structure is almost masked by the superbly ripe and fresh fruit. And with all this weight, there is still a sense of proportion, the rich berry fruits, smokiness and light spice beautifully integrated.

This Château Pape Clément displays a dark colour with glints of purplish-black. The nose is very dense and perfumed, and full of crushed cherries, rose petals and more. The profound palate has an elegant and direct style on the mouth, demonstrating expressive definition. Made from a blend of 55% Cabernet Sauvignon, 37% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Franc and 3% Petit Verdot, it exhibits a dense ruby/purple color along with a supple, medium to full-bodied texture with no hard edges, an opulence and exuberance that provide lots of seductiveness, and tell-tale notes of burning embers, charcoal, kirsch liqueur and black currant fruit.

2007 CHÂTEAU HAUT-BRION, 1ER CRU CLASSE, PESSAC-LÉOGNAN, BORDEAUX

A first growth, produced in Pessac just outside the city of Bordeaux. It differs from the other wines on the list in its geographic location in the north of the wine-growing region of Graves. Of the five first growths, it is the only wine with the Pessac-Léognan appellation and is in some sense the ancestor of a classification that remains the benchmark to this day. A perfumed bouquet with abundant red fruit, sage, sandalwood and black olive scents that just seem to soar from the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, beautifully judged acidity and a gentle build in the mouth towards the savory/meaty finish. There is class interwoven into this Haut Brion from start to finish, and the persistence is very impressive.

2010 MAISON ROCHE DE BELLENE CHAMBERTIN GRAND CRU, CÔTE DE NUITS

Le Chambertin is the most important grand cru vineyard in Gevrey-Chambertin, one of the northernmost wine villages in Burgundy's Côte de Nuits. The vineyard is easily one of the Côte d'Or's most prestigious, challenged only by the Romanée-Conti and Montrachet Grand Crus. Some of Burgundy's most famous names have holdings in the vineyard. There is unquestioning nobility to the nose of this imperial purple wine. It is very powerful and very intense with a backbone of steel. Concentrated, full red, not black, fruit fills the mouth. It displays dramatic intensity and a great sense of nervous tension. This is a superb example of Chambertin.

The stony alluvial soil has been deposited here over time from the Combe, and has a high proportion of limestone that makes it well suited to viticulture. This stunning example of Pinot Noir displays characters of cherry alongside rustic notes that express the terroir. ## 2016 GAJA BARBARESCO, PIEMONTE

The Nebbiolo vine is particularly affected by the small differences in the various types of soil. The blend of the grapes coming from the 14 vineyards stresses the features of the different terroirs, thus creating a complex and balanced wine. The bouquet smells of soft fruits, flowers, delicate spices and mineral notes. The structure is dense but elegant. It has a lingering finish with refined tannins. Each GAJA Barbaresco is the faithful expression of the production year and is suitable for a long bottle ageing.

2016 ALLEGRINI AMARONE DELLA VALPOLICELLA, VENETO

Amarone is the result of Allegrini's skill in creating a modern wine with a strong connection to tradition. Sourced from Classico area hillside vineyards, grapes are dried for a rich, powerful wine with characteristic dried cherry aromas and a tremendous structure. A classic of the appellation with both tradition and a sense of place. With intense aromas of ripe, dark fruit and spice, it has an imposing structure and depth, superb balance with refined tannins and a long, spiced finish.

2012 FÈLSINA BERARDENGA, 'COLONIA' CHIANTI CLASSICO GRAN SELEZIONE, TUSCANY

Named after an ancient heliotherapy centre (Colonia), the Colonia vineyard was the result of a difficult replanting project begun in 1966 and completed only 1993. The very rocky soil of this vineyard is full of iron and magnesium which give it a typical red colour. Intense ruby red in colour, this wine opens with spicy aromas which are followed by earthy nuances, and hints of mineral, tobacco and wild berry. On the palate, it has intense tannins and concentrated flavours.

2013 ISOLE E OLENA CHIANTI CLASSICO GRAN SELEZIONE, TUSCANY

This wine was first produced by Paolo De Marchi in 2006 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of his father buying the estates of Isole and Olena. Paolo releases this wine only in the outstanding vintages when fruits can give a wine that combines the "elegance and drinkability of Chianti Classico with the structure of a Super Tuscan". The 2013 Chianti Classico Gran Selezione is breathtaking. Beautifully ripe, deep and expressive, the 2013 has it all: deep fruit, stunning aromatic presence and tremendous structure. Black cherry, pomegranate, rose petal, mint and lavender all meld together in this super-expressive, resonant Chianti Classico. An absolutely killer wine, the Gran Selezione is a fabulous, contemporary expression of Chianti Classico at its very finest.

2016 ISOLE E OLENA 'CEPPARELLO', TUSCANY

Cepparello is the wine made from a selection of the best grapes from the Isole e Olena Estate. Each vintage, Paolo De Marchi selects the best vines in order to make this wine. Cepparello has aromas of red fruits and cherries on the nose along with a touch of spice from the well-judged use of oak. The palate opens to ripe fruit and the well-balanced structure of a great Cepparello, as well as elegant, soft tannins and a persistent finish.

2017 FONTODI 'FLACCIANELLO DELLA PIEVE', TUSCANY

Flaccianello is made from a selection of the best grapes from the best parts of the Fontodi vineyards in the Conca d'Oro, at the heart of Chianti Classico. 'Galestro' soils are perfect for Sangiovese. On the nose, aromas of ripe dark cherries, violets and plums, complemented by a hint of spice. This wine has wonderful structure and the palate is typically rich and full complemented by racy acidity and characteristically fine, supple tannins. The finish is flavourful and persistent.

2017 MARCHESI ANTINORI 'TIGNANELLO', TUSCANY

Tignanello was the first Sangiovese to be aged in barriques, the first contemporary red wine blended with untraditional varieties (specifically Cabernet) and one of the first red wines in the Chianti Classico region that didn't use white grapes. Tignanello is a milestone. It's produced with a selection of Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. There is a symphony of dark fruit with black cherry, plum, spice and sweet tobacco. I am particularly attracted by a distant hint of medicinal or menthol herb that I also discovered in other wines with fruit from the Tignanello estate in 2017. There's a drying mineral note of crushed chalk as well. The heat and dryness of the vintage has added to the aromatic intensity of the wine (yields were reduced by a third), but the mouthfeel is carefully crafted to maintain its softness and smoothness.

2015 TENUTA ORNELLAIA 'ORNELLAIA', TUSCANY

Since its inception, Ornellaia's production has been influenced and inspired by the Mediterranean character of the coast near Bolgheri. Founded in 1981, Ornellaia has helped establishing this relatively young viticultural area and it is now regarded as one of the world's most iconic estates. Painstaking attention to details, both in the vineyards and in the winery, allows Ornellaia to release every year utterly elegant interpretations of each vintage. The usual intense colour indicates a wine of great texture and intensity, followed by a fruity scent that is ripe and fresh at the same time, emphasized by classic balsamic and spicy hints. On the palate it is rich, dense, and full-bodied, with an exceptional tannic texture, dense and velvety, of great refinement, that extends throughout the mouth. The long finish concludes with a feeling of firmness and finely spiced hints.

2015 TENUTA SAN GUIDO 'SASSICAIA', TUSCANY

Sassicaia is today one of the most sought-after fine wines in the world. This is largely because of the vision, energy and drive of proprietor Mario Incisa della Rocchetta. Sassicaia's first vintage was released to universal acclaim in 1968. Sassicaia is now widely accepted as one of the world's greatest Cabernet Sauvignon wines and made history recently, being the first single wine to be granted its own DOC. Sassicaia 2015 is a beautifully integrated wine with lovely depth and great length. On the nose, expansive red cherry fruits and wild berries mingle with notes of savoury spice, Mediterranean herbs and a hint of lavender. The palate is refreshing and elegant with layers of complexity. Succulent red cherry and sweet plum fruits and a note of delicate spice lead to an incredibly long finish with a refined mineral character.

2015 HENSCHKE 'MOUNT EDELSTONE' SHIRAZ, EDEN VALLEY, AUSTRALIA

Home to one of Australia's greatest single-vineyard wines. The beautiful and historical name Mount Edelstone is a translation from the German Edelstein meaning gemstone. Distinctive Mount Edelstone Shiraz aromas of sage and crushed black pepper lead to spiced plum and black cherry characters, enveloped by crushed herbs with cedar nuances. Vibrant, wild forest berries are layered beautifully into a rich and elegantly textured palate with fine velvety tannins and lingering notes of black pepper and sage for an extremely long finish.

2006 PENFOLD'S GRANGE, SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Penfolds Grange (until the 1989 vintage labelled Penfolds Grange Hermitage) is made predominantly from Shiraz and a small percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon. It is widely considered one of Australia's "first growth" and its most collectable wine. The term "Hermitage", the name of a French wine appellation, was commonly used in Australia as another synonym for Shiraz. Surprisingly supple in the mouth, 2006 was quite a difficult year in Australia, but the structure and complexity are there with enveloping aromas of black fruits and vanilla. The juice is still very young and aeration does it the greatest good since the wine becomes deliciously bloody. Perfect balance, the wine unfolds serenely and offers very beautiful things, to finish on a pleasant minty finish with melted tannins and a good length.

2014 WILD EARTH 'SPECIAL EDITION' PINOT NOIR, CENTRAL OTAGO, NEW ZEALAND

SWEET WINES

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM, 1ER CRU SUPÉRIEUR, SAUTERNES, BORDEAUX

A "Superior First Growth" wine from the Sauternes, Gironde region in the southern part of the Bordeaux vineyards known as Graves. In the Bordeaux Wine Official Classification of 1855, Château d'Yquem was the only Sauternes given this rating, indicating its perceived superiority and higher prices over all other wines of its type. Yquem's success stems largely from the site's susceptibility to attack by "noble rot". Pale to medium lemon-gold color, the 2010 d'Yquem has retreated into its shell at this youthful stage, offering spritely suggestions of lemon curd, lime cordial and green mango with wafts of honeysuckle, spice cake, sea spray and beeswax plus a hint of gingerbread. The palate really comes through with super intense, tightly wound citrus, savory and mineral layers carried by a laser-precise backbone of freshness, finishing with crazy persistence that lingers a full three minutes and then some.
